After a plane crash, a young therapist, Claire, is assigned by her mentor to counsel the flight's five survivors. When they share their recollections of the incident--which some say include an explosion that the airline claims never happened--Claire is intrigued by Eric, the most secretive of the passengers. Just as Claire's professional relationship with Eric--despite her better judgment--blossoms into a romance, the survivors begin to disappear mysteriously, one by one. Claire suspects that Eric may hold all the answers and becomes determined to uncover the truth, no matter the consequences.

PORTRAIT OF JENNIE Movie-DVD

Thurs. February 9th at 10am
Lutheran Manor Lounge

One of the most unusual romances ever filmed, Portrait of Jennie is the picture of sumptuous perfection. Starring Joseph Cotten and Jennifer Jones in a sensitive, appealing performance, this tender and poetic tale is enthralling from its touching beginning to its haunting conclusion. When struggling artist Eben Adams (Cotten) meets the beautiful and mysterious

Jennie (Jones), he is instantly captivated. Before long, Jennie has become his great muse and he is enjoying success and bliss beyond his dreams. But there is a price to pay for such elation, and soon Eben must face the truth about who Jennie really is.

▪ PORTRAIT OF JENNIE (filmed in 1949), is one of the most memorable Hollywood romances, boasting strong performances and a surprise twist ending. Based on the novel by Robert Nathan, it almost plays like a lost episode of "The Twilight Zone".

▪ I've read and enjoyed the book and I love this movie. Joseph Cotton is great in this role. Jennifer Jones is magical. The movie is a combination of love story, science fiction, time travel, mystery, and fairy tale. I return to it again and again. It's a heart-breaker but in a good way; it lingers in the memory. I highly recommend it.

Sponsored by the Chat Room. Refreshments will be served.

It's that time of year again. Love is in the air. Valentines are taking the place of the Christmas decorations. All over the world people find ways to say "I love you."

Here is what love means to some 4-8 year olds. You'll be surprised.

- ♥ Love is like a little old woman and a little old man who are still friends even after they know each other so well." Tommy - age 6
- ♥ "During my piano recital, I was on a stage and I was scared. I looked at all the people watching me and saw my daddy waving and smiling. He was the only one doing that. I wasn't scared anymore." Cindy - age 8
- ♥ "Love is when your puppy licks your face even after you left him alone all day." Mary Ann - age 4
- ♥ "You really shouldn't say 'I love you' unless you mean it. But if you mean it, you should say it a lot. People forget." Jessica - age 8
- ♥ "If you want to learn to love better, you should start with a friend who you hate." Nikka - age 6 (we need a few million more Nikka's)
- ♥ And the final one...Author Leo Buscaglia once talked about a contest to find the most caring child. The winner was a four year old child whose next door neighbor was an elderly gentleman who had recently lost his wife. Upon seeing the man cry, the little boy went into the old gentleman's yard, climbed onto his lap, and just sat there. When his Mother asked what he had said to the neighbor, the little boy said, "Nothing , I just helped him cry."

May you find little ways to show acts of kindness and love to others around you this Valentine's Day and always.

-Sharing God's love, Pastor Clark
