“Return to me and I will return to you, says the Lord.” Zechariah 1:3

Henri M. Nouwen writes a little devotional booklet called “Returning: God’s Love Calls us Home.” The booklet is about the prodigal son and how we are all similar to him in wandering away from our first love...that love which God has for us in Jesus Christ.

This time of Lent is an opportunity for us to “return home.” Lent is a time for repentance. But, this need not be a time of rooting around inside ourselves looking for the past mistakes. Repentance can be a change of mind, a change of heart, a time for renewal and returning to a loving forgiving God who doesn’t demand a certain motivation for our “returning.”

In his short story “Somebody’s Son,” Richard Pindell describes the homecoming of a runaway boy named David. He wrote his mother asking if his father would accept him again. If so, ask him to tie a white cloth to the apple tree in the field next to the house, he wrote. As David is on his way home and nearing the bend in the track which will bring him in view of the apple tree, he asks a stranger next to him to watch for the white cloth because he is too apprehensive. David does not look. The stranger says in surprise, “Why son, there’s a white cloth tied to practically every branch.”

Our God is a loving parent. He is anxious to have us return home and live in his care and love. Take the opportunity this Lenten season to return home by...reading your Bible, worshiping at church, serving Christ and others more...

May you be surprised by Christ’s wide opened arms as he welcome YOU home.

“SIGHT AND SOUND” VAN TRIPS TO SEE

“JONAH” - Wednesdays, April 11 & May 23. See Miki for reservations/ payment.

BIBLE STUDY every Monday from 1-2 PM in the Patio. All are welcome. Now studying: Esther & Jonah. No Bible knowledge necessary. We’ll learn & grow together.

LET’S TALK ABOUT IT (Life Bio) every Thursday from 10-11:30 am in the Patio. During one session we talked about... the history of Allentown Fair, football agents, boating on Barnegat Bay, NJ, the beautiful River Thames, Academy Award winners of the past, and what’s wrong (and right!) with our country. Lots more...join the fun!

Note from the Staff...

As we enter March, we look sadly upon the retirement of long time security guard, Don Byington. Don has been with us 10 years. He has done a great job here at Lutheran Manor and will be missed as part of the staff. However, Don will continue to be an integral part of Lutheran Manor as a resident and coordinator of the Men's group that sponsors our great concerts and various sales. We are happy that Don will continue to be an active part of our community.

We look with anticipation on the arrival, at the end of the month, of our new security couple, Dave and Krissy Dunnivant. Active members of Salem Lutheran Church, Dave recently retired from a career in heating and air conditioning and Krissy is employed with an alarm center. They have two grandchildren and are looking forward to meeting everyone.

It has come to the attention of the staff, that there has been an increasing amount of theft in the building. Please do not take any items not belonging to you. Newspapers in mailboxes are the property of that resident, packages outside of doors belong to the person in that apartment. Do not take anything from outside apartments or from mailboxes that do not belong to you. Please keep in mind that theft is grounds for eviction. Be considerate of your neighbors and their property. Thank you.

The Staff of Lutheran Manor

Movie Night

Sunday, March 11; 7 p.m.

This month's feature is "50 First Dates", a rollicking comedy with Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore. Watch Sandler try to woo amnesia victim Barrymore from scratch every day with hilarious results.

Trips to Notice...
