Movie Days

Snowed-in at an airport overnight, ex-lovers Willa & Bill realize they're still attracted to each other-but also still equally annoyed with one another. As they unpack their past & dreams they once shared, they begin to wonder if their reunion is a mere coincidence or something more enchanted.

NOV 3 | R

In-Person Movie

Three sisters return to their childhood home for a momentous occasion: the third wedding of their twice-widowed mother. Over the weekend, the family gathers to celebrate the new marriage, but mother and daughters alike are forced to revisit the past and confront the future, all with help from a colorful group of unexpected wedding guests.

From the Chaplain

I suspect that most all of us were taught to say "please" and "thank you" as children and it has sort of become a reflex. However, a spiritual discipline of gratitude is more than a polite gesture but rather it is learning how to say thank you with increased regularity.

For me, this often looks like glancing out my window at the Autumn leaves here at Lutheran Manor and then turning to the framed ocean picture on my wall, family photos, kind gifts and notes before sitting down at my desk. I take a deep breath and say thank you. It might sound a bit silly, but that moment of gratitude allows me to begin my day connected to nature, people and God—it sets the tone. When we pause to thank God, we open ourselves to His presence and shift our perspective from what we lack to what we have been graciously given. In 1 Thessalonians 5:18, we are encouraged, "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." This isn't just advice for good manners. It's a divine directive for living in joy and peace.

I wish you all a Happy Thanksgiving. Let this time be one of gratitude for all the blessings we have received. Let the gratefulness overflow into blessing all around you.

~Gratefully, Pastor Clark
