From the Chaplain

Seasons come and go, bringing both beauty and challenges. Autumn is my favorite time of year... the color changes of the trees, the cooler nights, the sweaters, & sweatshirts. Our dog, Charlie & I let out most days in the early morning for a walk. I remember one day last year when I was walking on a trail in late October. A light puff of wind stirred the trees and a colorful shower of red, gold & brown leaves "left go" of their branches and fell effortlessly to the ground. It was peaceful and sort of mystical.

Fall is a powerful reminder of the peace that comes from "Letting Go". When we hold on to worries, fears, or burdens, we block the peace God wants to give us. He invites us to cast our cares on Him, knowing that His love & care for us is constant (1 Peter 5:7).

"Let Go and Let God" work in ways we couldn't imagine!

Blessing for a season of peace! -Pastor Clark

'FLASH OF GENIUS'

Chaplin remained steadfast in his love for the expressive beauty of the pre-talkie form resulting in the epitome of his art and the crowning achievement of silent comedy. This film is a silent tale of a lovable vagrant falling for a blind woman.

OCTOBER 29

Bellezza Salon

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month...

If you or someone you know has gone through Breast Cancer, Radiation or Chemo--it can cause stress, negativity, fear, future well-being, lack of hair growth or loss of hair.

Here are a few steps to make the journey easier:

- ~Associate with positivity to stay upbeat
 - ~Have faith help guide you
 - ~Take quiet time for yourself (music, meditation, massage, walks, sun, & God)
 - ~Tweak your food intake because cancer loves sugar (consult your health provider)
 - ~Make sure you're on a good vitamin program for your total body, skin & hair enhancement regiment (professional & doctor recommended for true hair growth)
- NURAFOL - Clinically tested Nutraceuticals for improved growth
 - VIVISCAL PRO - Supplements taken daily will help maintain a healthy look & feel
 - Retails for $209 for a 90 day supply--OUR PRICE $189 (Ask salon for details)

October Tidbits

Flowers - Marigold symbolizes joy and passion, while the delicate Cosmos represents balance, peace, and harmony
